

ASSOCIATE

SSEK

Indonesian Legal Consultants

Stephen I. Warokka

E stephenwarokka@ssek.com

Stephen Igor Warokka graduated from the Faculty of Law at Atma Jaya University in 2007 before joining SSEK as part of its internship program.

He has been involved in a wide range of projects, including shipping and maritime law, general corporate law, mergers and acquisitions, foreign capital investment law, immigration law and negotiations with various government officials related to commercial transactions.

His more recent experience includes representation of various foreign shipping companies in the acquisition and sale of vessels; advising a foreign shipping company on the shipping agency business in Indonesia; advising and representing an Indonesian shipping company in connection with a facility agreement with syndicated lenders; and advising shipping companies on foreign ownership restrictions and Indonesian cabotage laws.

Stephen earned his Master of Laws (LL.M) from the University of California, Berkeley (Boalt Hall) School of Law. At UC Berkeley, he was a member of the Student Organization for Advanced Legal Studies, and he also channeled his enthusiasm for sports by organizing sports events with other universities.

Stephen is fluent in Indonesian and English and is a member of the Indonesian Advocates Association (Peradi), allowing him bar admittance in all judicial courts throughout Indonesia.