Asri Rahimi earned her Bachelor of Laws from the University of Indonesia in 2015, specializing in private international law. Before joining SSEK, Asri interned at another well-known law firm in Jakarta, where she was involved mainly in capital markets work.

Since joining SSEK, Asri has been involved in a variety of projects, with a focus on foreign investment, data protection and general corporate and commercial matters. She has also been heavily involved in the fintech sector, where she has advised numerous big-name companies and worked on deals involving substantial investments in Indonesian fintech startups. Asri has also assisted with the listing of companies on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange and often deals with tax matters, with an emphasis on tax disputes.

At university, Asri was active in international moot court competitions. She participated in the 2013 and 2014 Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot and earned several awards, including Honorable Mention for Best Oralist and Honorable Mention for Best Team. Asri has remained active in coaching University of Indonesia law students in moot court competitions and has helped them secure a number of international awards.

Asri is fluent in English and Indonesian.
