

ASSOCIATE

Karisa U. Pangaribuan
E karisapangaribuan@ssek.com

Karisa Utami Pangaribuan joined SSEK in 2010. Her practice includes mergers and acquisitions, foreign capital investment, real estate, and general corporate law.

Karisa received her Bachelor of Laws with a concentration in economic law from the University of Indonesia in 2010. She earned her Master of Laws (LL.M.) in 2016 from Columbia University in New York.

Karisa's experience includes the establishment of a joint venture company involving a Japanese multinational confectionary company, the negotiation of security documents on behalf of a British multinational banking and financial services company in a financing transaction with an Indonesian coal mining company, and the negotiation of the sale and purchase of land on behalf of a Jakarta-based international school.

Karisa is a licensed attorney and a member of the Indonesian Advocates Association (Peradi).