

ASSOCIATE

Callista Putri Mayari

E callistamayari@ssek.com

Callista Putri Mayari earned her Bachelor of Laws in 2015 from the University of Indonesia, majoring in business and economic law. She was actively involved in several student organizations and participated in seminars and workshops hosted by prominent companies.

Callista joined SSEK in 2019 and her practice has been focused on commercial transactions. She has been heavily involved in numerous legal due diligence projects and has worked on several projects where she advised clients on various corporate matters.

Her recent experience includes:

- Assisting a notable publicly listed bank with a three-tranche acquisition and working with another publicly listed bank on a P2P partnership scheme;
- Assisting a large Indonesian publicly listed company in connection with the initial public offering of its parent company in Thailand;
- Acting as Indonesian counsel for a company that is listed on the London Stock Exchange to facilitate its dividend reinvestment services for Indonesian shareholders, which included advising on the regulatory approval regime in Indonesia;
- Acting as Indonesian counsel for a notable American investment management company to facilitate its global cross-border marketing services to Indonesian investors, which included advising on the regulatory and licensing regimes in Indonesia;
- Acting as Indonesian counsel for a large Middle East-based global financial services provider in setting up an online platform in Indonesia, which included advising on the Indonesian regulatory and licensing regimes for the online trading of financial products;
- Acting as Indonesian counsel for a notable American global cross-border financial services provider to create a strategy for the launch of its products and services in Indonesia, which included advising on the regulatory and licensing regimes for brokerage, payment and cryptocurrency services in Indonesia.

Prior to joining SSEK, Callista spent more than three years at a private company and another prominent law firm in Jakarta, where she was involved in numerous capital market, finance and M&A transactions.

Callista is a member of the Indonesian Advocates Association (Peradi) and is licensed as an advocate.

Callista is fluent in English and Indonesian.