

ASSOCIATE

SSEK

Indonesian Legal Consultants

Ruth Margaretha Ginting

E ruthginting@ssek.com

Ruth Margaretha Ginting earned her Bachelor of Laws (S.H) from Parahyangan Catholic University in 2017. Prior to joining SSEK, Ruth spent almost four years at another prominent law firm in Jakarta, where she was extensively involved in a wide range of corporate matters and commercial and M&A transactions.

Her recent experience includes assisting the National Research and Development Agency of Japan in a G2G project with the Indonesian Ministry of Energy and Mineral Resources concerning compressed natural gas (CNG) vehicles in Indonesia.

Ruth conducted and lead legal due diligence for companies in the construction, insurance, and industry sectors, and was extensively involved in drafting transaction agreements.

Ruth is admitted to practice law in Indonesia and is a member of the Indonesian Advocates Association (PERADI).

Ruth is fluent in Indonesian and English.